John G. L. Crain Wins Chamber Post

New California trade and industrial commissioner for the Portland, Ore., Chamber of Commerce is John G. L. Crain, industrial transportation specialist, of Torrance.

Crain succeeds Tom Cuning in the Portland chamber's Los Angeles office at 3757 Wilshire Blvd.

The chamber opened the office last May to further trade and industrial development throughout the Pacific Northwest, using Portland as a key distribution point. Crain will contact California firms which may have interest in expanding distribution or other facilities in the Pacific Northwest and will provide them detailed information on advantages of a Portland location.

Crain is well known in Southern California as a civic leader and transportation specialist. He is a practitioner before the Interstate Commerce Commission, a member of the board of directors of the Los Angeles Transportation Club and a member of the Citrus Belt Traffic Club. He has been president of the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association and a commissioner of the Torrance Municipal Airport Commission.

Eagle Scouts to Hear Gen. LeMay at L.A. Dinner

Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, Vice Chief of Staff of the U.S. Air Force, will be the principal speaker at a dinner honoring Eagle Scouts from the Los Angeles Area Council, Boy Scouts of America. This year's Eagle Scout Dinner will be held at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 20, at the Statler Hilton Hotel.

The Eagle Scouts will each be the guest of a prominent businessman whose field the Scout hopes to enter.

Gen. LeMay, former head of Strategic Air Command, will speak on "Scouting Today Prepares a Man for a Peaceful Tomorrow."

"I've been deeply interested in Scouting for many years," LeMay said, "and am especially happy to speak at a dinner recognizing Eagle Scouts, who are the finest products of Scouting's great training."

A. C. Rubel, president of Union Oil, is chairman of the dinner. This is the 16th year Eagle Scouts have been recognized by the Los Angeles Area Council and local business and industrial leaders.

Among the 100 sponsors who will be paired with an Eagle Scout at the dinner are Leonard K. Firestone, Hollywood producers Henry Wilson and Ed Lesser, radio announcer Art Baker, Lloyd Austin, president of Security First National Bank; Alfred M. Ghoram, president of Carnation Co.; Edwin Pauley, president of Pacific Telephone; Roy Crocker, president of Lincoln Savings; Ronald Call, president of Save-on Drugs; H. L. Hoffman, president of Hoffman Electronics; Richard Moore, president of KTTV; Al Gook, director of the Bank of America.

Representing all the Eagle Scouts, one boy will be chosen to deliver a special address. Also on the program are Council President Harold Sanders and Scout Executive Arnold C. Sorenson.

For the second year in a row, the Lennon Sisters of the Lawrence Welk Show will entertain the 1,000 guests.

Matilda Mehen Rites Conducted

Funeral services were conducted for Ida Matilda Mehen, 76, 3742 W. 177th St., Monday in the Colonial Chapel, Hardin and Flanagan Mortuary, Inglewood.

Mrs. Mehen died at General Hospital following a lingering illness. She was a native of Cleveland and lived here eight years.

She leaves a daughter, Florence Isenberg of Torrance; a brother, Herman Kurz of Cleveland; and two granddaughters and three great-grandchildren. Interment was at Roosevelt Memorial Park.
